

Vested in trustee

the insolvent and be vested in the trustee; and thereafter the same proceedings shall be had as hereinbefore prescribed in relation to persons who shall apply for the benefit of the provisions of this article; and the said debtor shall thereupon immediately execute the schedule and list of debts, "verified by his affidavit," as provided by section one of this article, and the debtor shall be entitled to a discharge from all debts and contracts made before the filing of the petition in this section mentioned, in the same manner and to the same extent, and with the same exception as though he had made application, as provided in section one of this article.

Prima facie evidence.

SEC. 25. If any deed, conveyance, assignment, gift, transfer or delivery be made of any goods, chattels, moneys, choses in action, lands, tenements or other property, or lien created thereon by any person belonging to any of the classes mentioned in section thirteen, when insolvent or in contemplation of insolvency, the same shall be prima facie intended to hinder, delay and defraud the creditors of the person by whom the same is made, and the burden of proof shall rest upon him and the grantee to explain the same and show the bona fides thereof; provided the creditors of the grantor in such deeds, conveyances or assignments should avail themselves of the provisions of this article.

Not to disturb right.

SEC. 26. If any real or personal property of the insolvent shall have been decreed to be sold by virtue of any decree of any court of equity, or advertised to be sold by virtue of any power contained in any mortgage or bill of sale, the filing of the petition by or against the insolvent as hereinbefore provided shall not disturb the right of the trustee or other person so advertising to proceed with such sale, unless otherwise ordered by the court having jurisdiction in insolvency.

Keep record.

SEC. 27. It shall be the duty of the several clerks of the courts of this State wherein any proceedings in insolvency may be pending under any of the provisions of this article, to have and keep a book to be called "Insolvent Record," in addition to the book in which he may keep docket entries
