

commissioners, which shall be open at all times for the inspection of any person interested, and the said clerk shall make out and furnish the collector, once in every year, a list of taxes for collection.

Pass ordinances

Prohibit firing of guns,
&c.

Power to remit.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners may pass ordinances to preserve the health of the town, preventing the erection of all privies, sinks or any place for the deposit of refuse and unwholesome matter, without cement cases for the contents of the same; to prevent and remove nuisances; to prevent, restrain or regulate the running at large of horses, cattle, swine and geese within the limits of said town; to prohibit the firing of guns and pistols, or the shooting of fire crackers within said town; to prohibit and disperse the tumultuous meetings of idle, dissolute or drunken persons; to provide for working and mending the public streets; to provide for the paving of the sidewalks and gutters, and generally to provide for the regulation, good government and improvements of said town, and may enforce the observance thereof under such penalties, fines and forfeitures as they shall deem proper, not exceeding ten dollars for any one offence; and all such fines, penalties and forfeitures may be recovered before a justice of the peace by warrant, judgment and commitment, for a period not exceeding ten days, to the public jail of Worcester county, in the same manner that commitments are made for fines imposed by the Circuit Courts of this State on conviction for misdemeanor; but the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power at any time to remit or release the said fines, penalties, forfeitures and costs, or any part thereof, at their discretion; but any party fined or subjected to any penalty or forfeitures, may, within five days after the same shall be imposed and judgment recovered, supersede or stay the same for thirty days by giving ample personal security to the justice of the peace; and the said commissioners may purchase a suitable piece of land, and cause to be erected thereon a strong room or lock-up for the detention of violators of the ordinances of said town; provided the cost of said lock-up and lot of ground does not exceed the sum of one hundred dollars.