

Repealed and re-enacted.

ter four hundred and forty of the acts passed at the January session, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, title "City of Havre-de-Grace," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

Enforce ordinances

SEC. 35. That the Mayor and City Council shall have the power to enforce the observance of such ordinance as they may pass, by fines of not less than fifty cents nor more than twenty dollars, unless herein specially provided for; all fines imposed by any ordinance may be collected in the name of the Mayor and City Council of Havre-de-Grace, before a justice of the peace, similar to the mode of collecting small debts, and the delinquent shall stand committed to the county jail until the same is paid, with costs; the sheriff of Harford county shall receive and safely keep, in the jail of said county, for breach or violation of any of the ordinances of said city, according to the tenor of the commitment, and in the same manner and under the same regulations as persons committed for the violation of the laws of this State: and the bailiff of said city, or his deputies, shall have power to arrest, without warrant, any person or persons engaged in violating any of the ordinances or disturbing the public peace, and confine them in the lock-up until such time as he can, without unreasonable delay, take them before some justice of the peace for trial; the Mayor and City Council shall have power, by ordinance, to license and regulate hackney coaches, carts, drays, wagons, or other carriages kept for hire and employed within the city, with power to make all necessary regulations respecting the same, and also the power to sell sand or clay from any of the streets, lanes or alleys of the city when, in the judgment of the Mayor and City Council, the same is not needed for grading purposes.

Power to arrest.

Approved April 10, 1880.