

CHAPTER 322.

AN ACT to repeal sections one hundred and two and one hundred and three of article twenty-one of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Washington county," sub-title "Fish," and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sections one hundred and two and one hundred and three of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Washington county," sub-title "Fish," as the same were amended by chapter three hundred and thirty-four of the Acts of Assembly of eighteen hundred and seventy-four, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows :

Repealed and re-enacted.

102. It shall not be lawful for any person to whip or beat the water in the Antietam creek or its tributary streams, Beaver creek, Long Meadow branch, and Little Antietam, with poles, sticks or other things, for the purpose of driving the fish into nets, seines, fish baskets or other snares, or to erect any fish pot, or to fish with any net, basket, gig, trot line, or in any other manner, except with the angling rod and dip nets.

Unlawful acts

103. Any person offending against the provisions of the last preceding section shall be arrested and taken before a justice of the peace, and on conviction, shall forfeit and pay for each offence, and for each month a fish pot may be suffered to remain in any of the streams aforesaid, a fine, not exceeding the sum of twenty dollars, and in default of payment of such fine shall be committed to the county jail for a term not exceeding sixty days, the said fine to be recovered in the name of the County Commissioners of Washington county, before a justice of the peace, one half to be paid to the informer and the other half to the school fund of said county; provided that any person feeling himself aggrieved by the judgment rendered by any justice of the peace, in proceedings under the provision of this and the last

Fine for violation.