

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if it shall be found that a majority of the votes cast at said election as aforesaid are against liquor license, then license for the sale of intoxicating liquors shall not be granted in said county, on and after the first day of May, eighteen hundred and eighty-one; but if it shall be found that a majority of the votes cast at said election as aforesaid are for liquor license, then license for the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be granted in said county, and the laws now regulating the same remain in full force.

Majority to decide.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if it shall be found that a majority of the votes cast at said election as aforesaid, are against liquor license, then it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, corporation, company or association, to sell, directly or indirectly, barter or trade any kind of intoxicating liquors in Montgomery county aforesaid, on and after the first day of May, eighteen hundred and eighty-one.

Majority to decide.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That any person or persons, corporation, company or association violating the provisions of this act, by selling directly or indirectly, bartering or trading any kind of intoxicating liquors in said county, upon conviction in a court of justice shall, at the discretion of the court, pay a fine of not more than three hundred dollars nor less than fifty dollars.

Penalty for violation.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall go into effect from the day of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 10, 1880.