

sureties, in double the amount of the assessments so made by him or them, to be approved by the said county commissioners, conditioned for the true and faithful performance of his or their duty as examiner or examiners, which bond shall be to the State of Maryland, and enure to the benefit of any person or persons aggrieved, injured or damnified in any manner by the proceedings of said examiner or examiners.

Appoint another.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That if any such examiner or examiners shall die, or refuse or neglect to file the said bond, or proceed with the duties required of them by this act, at any time after their appointment, the said county commissioners, upon application being made to them, with satisfactory proof of the death, refusal or neglect as aforesaid, shall, in case of the death of any such examiner or examiners, at their next regular meeting, appoint another or others; and in case of the refusal or neglect, as aforesaid, after giving the examiner or examiners notice, if he or they shall continue to neglect or refuse, as aforesaid, for thirty days thereafter, they shall appoint another or other examiners as the case may be.

To be deposited.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That all moneys received by any such examiner or examiners for benefits, or from any other source in connection with the opening, paving, grading and curbing of any street, alley-way or thoroughfare, under the provisions of this act, shall be deposited, as required by section seven of this act, in some bank in the city of Baltimore, to be designated by said commissioners, to the credit of the street, alley-way or thoroughfare proposed to be opened, graded, paved or curbed, and by such bank be kept separate from any other funds which said examiner or examiners may have on deposit in said bank; and in case of the appointment of another or other examiners, under the provisions of section fourteen, such moneys shall be paid out by such bank upon the check, order or warrant of such other examiner or examiners, as the case may be.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That whenever it may be desirable to have an alley laid off and established