

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any broker in horses who sells, or exposes for sale, horses, mares or geldings, in the streets of Baltimore, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be subject to a penalty of twenty dollars for each and every horse, mare and gelding so sold, or exposed for sale.

When deemed guilty.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That any broker in horses, who sells an unsound horse, mare or gelding in the city of Baltimore, knowing at the time it to be unsound, and representing it to be sound, in order to deceive or defraud the purchaser thereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be subject to a penalty of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for not less than one nor more than twelve months, at the discretion of the judge presiding over the Criminal Court of Baltimore city at the time of trial.

Not to deceive or defraud.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That any person who shall carry on the business of dealing in horses, or who shall offer to act as agent for the owner or owners in the sale of horses for a fee or reward, whether by advertisement, sign or otherwise, without a license, shall be subject to a penalty of five hundred dollars for each offence, one-half thereof for the use of the State, and the other half thereof to the informer; provided, however, that nothing contained in the first and fourth sections of this act shall be held to prevent drovers, bona fide, residing in the counties of this State, and drovers of other States, from making sales of such horses as they have brought to the city of Baltimore, without a license; and nothing in the said two sections contained shall be held to apply to regularly licensed auctioneers in the city of Baltimore.

Fine for violation.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 10, 1880.
