

the sale to be made by the nearest constable in the neighborhood where said justice resides, the officer thus authorized to make sale by this section to advertise the same in some newspaper published in Queen Anne's county for at least ten days before the said sale of the said sink box, decoys, boats, guns and other furniture thus seized, setting forth the time, place and terms of said sale (which shall be for cash only), and from the proceeds of said sale the officer shall pay one half to the County Commissioners of Queen Anne's county, for the use of public roads, and the other half to those aiding and arresting those found guilty by the said justice, unless the arrest is made by a commander of the State Fishery Force, in which case the officer selling shall be paid such fees as are usual in his general business of collecting executions, and the balance to be paid to the County Commissioners for the use of the public schools of Queen Anne's county.

Proceeds—
how disposed of

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That should any person resist any officer in making any arrest under the provisions of this act, said person or persons, upon conviction before any justice of the peace of Queen Anne's county, shall be fined not less than fifty or more than five hundred dollars, and stand committed until said fine has been paid.

Resisting officer.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That any person or persons convicted under any of the provisions of this act shall have the right of appeal from the decision of said justice to the Circuit Court of Queen Anne's county; provided the person or persons so appealing shall give bond, with two sufficient securities to be approved by the justice trying the same, in double the amount of the fine imposed (and also of the value of the property seized in case he be a non-resident), with conditions to prosecute such appeal with effect to the circuit court at its next session thereafter, and to pay the fine imposed, and all costs attending such proceedings, in case judgment shall be confirmed.

Right of appeal.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the waters of Queen Anne's county are hereby so construed that