

CHAPTER 383.

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money to pay the claims of Medairy and Bowers, for stationery furnished for the use of the General Assembly, Court of Appeals, and the State Library; to pay to Samuel Casey, Weigher General of Grain, a sum of money in full for services rendered by him and his assistants in the weighing of grain required by a law of this State to be weighed; to pay the expenses of Joint Committee of the Senate and House of Delegates, appointed to investigate the management of Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, and to pay expenses of the committee appointed to examine the conduct of Judge Pearre.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Comptroller of the Treasury be and he is hereby authorized and directed to issue his warrants upon the State Treasurer to pay Medairy and Bowers the sum of six thousand two hundred and six dollars and eighty-two cents, for stationery furnished for the use of the General Assembly, the Court of Appeals and the State Library; to pay Samuel Casey, Weigher General of Grain, the sum of five thousand five hundred and twenty-four dollars, in full pay for all services rendered by him and his assistants for the weighing of grain required by a law of this State to be weighed, but for which said labors so performed said weigher general of grain was unable to collect the fees, because said law was decided to be unconstitutional by the Court of Appeals; to pay the expenses of the joint committee of the Senate and House of Delegates, appointed to investigate the management of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, and to pay the expenses of the special committee of the House of Delegates to investigate the conduct of Judge Pearre, thirty-five hundred dollars, or so much

Issue warrant.