

premiums the amount of losses actually paid in this State during the same period, for or by said company, individual, resident or non-resident, partnership or association, under policies of insurance granted therein; but without any deduction for expenses for endorsements which may have been paid, or for any other cause whatever. A report of the premiums so collected, and the losses paid by or for any such company, as above, must be made to the Insurance Commissioner, under oath of the chief accounting officer of such company, or of its general agent for this State, at the time of obtaining the license hereinabove provided for. Any company applying for admission into this State shall pay for license in like proportion for a fractional part of a year, so that all licenses issued shall expire on the thirty-first day of December next ensuing; in addition to the above license and tax, there shall be paid by each insurance company, individual, resident or non-resident, partnership or association, whether of this State or otherwise, doing business in this State, the following fees to defray the expenses of executing the provisions of this act; upon filing the declaration or certified copy of charter, hereafter admitted to do business in this State, "twenty-five dollars; upon filing each annual statement, twenty-five dollars; for each certificate of authority which each agent of every insurance company, not organized under the laws of this State, is hereby required to obtain, the sum of ten dollars; provided, however, that sub-agents or solicitors, who may be appointed by the general agent of any life insurance company in this State, shall only be required to pay for these respective certificates of authority, the sum of two dollars; for each abstract of their annual statements for publication, two dollars; for every copy of any paper filed in the insurance department, the sum of twenty cents per folio; and for affixing the official seal to such copy and certifying the same, one dollar; for valuing policies of life insurance companies, thirty dollars per million of insurance, or any fractional part thereof; for official examinations of companies under this act, the actual expenses incurred; provided that the filing of the papers with the Insurance Commissioner, as required by this act, shall be in lieu of all papers now required by law to be filed

Report must be made.

Fees.