

CHAPTER 405.

AN ACT to change a part of the dividing line between the sixth election district and seventh election district of Baltimore county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all that part of the sixth election district of Baltimore county, lying easterly and north easterly of the Northern Central Railroad, and between said railroad and the present line of said sixth election district and the seventh election district of said county, shall be, and is hereby made a part of said seventh election district, and that said Northern Central Railroad, from the point where it crosses the Maryland and Pennsylvania line to the point at which it crosses Bee Tree Run, nearest the point at which said Bee Tree Run empties into a branch of the Great Gunpowder Falls or river, south of Bently Springs station on said Northern Central railroad, shall be, and is hereby made the dividing line between said sixth and seventh election district.

Change dividing line.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That said part of said sixth election district hereby made a part of said seventh election district, shall be included in, and constitute a part of the first precinct of said seventh election district.

Included.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the officer of registration of said sixth election district, prior to the next election in this State, and when he first sits for the purpose of registration, shall transmit to the officer of registration of said seventh election district, certificates of registration of all persons residing in said part of said sixth election district hereby made a part of said seventh election district, who are registered as voters in said sixth election district, and shall strike their names from the registration list of said sixth election district; and that the officer of registration of said seventh election district, upon receiving said certificates of registration, shall register all persons whose names appear on said certificates, and all other persons residing in said part of Transmit certificates.