

Constituted a body politic

art Latrobe, Alfred Jenkins, Jr., Charles F. Bancroft, Louis R. Cassard and Henry Zell, and their associates, who now constitute the Baltimore Kennel Club, and such others as shall hereafter be admitted members of the same, be and they are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, with succession, under the name and style of the Baltimore Kennel Club, with power to them and their successors to adopt a common seal, and the same to change and alter; and by the corporate name above-mentioned, to sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, and to take and hold property, real, personal and mixed, and the same to sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, and in general to do, suffer and perform, with reference to the herein before mentioned purpose of their incorporation, all acts and things which may lawfully be done, performed and suffered by a natural person.

Constitution and by-laws.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this corporation, or a majority of the members of the same, shall have full power to make a constitution and by laws for the management of the affairs of said club, and the same to alter, amend and annul whenever they may think proper; and the present officers of the club shall continue in their respective offices until an election shall be made under this act.

Object.

SEC. 3 And be it enacted, That the object of the said corporation shall be the keeping, breaking and improvement of the breed of dogs.

Approved April 10, 1880.