

Notice not necessary.

on the day next before said Christmas day, New Year's day, fourth day of July, twenty-second day of February, Good Friday, and the day of the general election, or day of thanksgiving or humiliation as aforesaid, unless said next preceding day be Sunday, in which event said promissory notes or bills of exchange shall be payable on the Saturday preceding; and it shall not be necessary for the holder of such bills of exchange or promissory notes, payable as aforesaid, to give notice of the dishonor thereof, until the day next after said Christmas day, New Year's day, fourth of July, twenty-second of February, Good Friday, or day of thanksgiving or humiliation as aforesaid; and in case next succeeding day shall be Sunday, it shall not be necessary for the holder of said bills of exchange and promissory notes to give notice of the dishonor thereof, until the second day next succeeding such Christmas day, New Year's day, fourth of July, twenty-second of February, Good Friday, and the day of the general elections, or day of humiliation or thanksgiving as aforesaid; and every such notice as given as aforesaid shall be valid and effectual to all intents and purposes.

Approved April 14, 1880.

---

CHAPTER 427.

AN ACT to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors in Allegany county, provided the qualified voters thereof shall so determine in the manner herein provided.

Not to sell liquors.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no person, corporation, company or association, shall be allowed at any time to sell by himself, herself or itself, his, her or its clerks, servant or agent, directly or indirectly, any intoxicating liquors of whatever origin in Allegany county, except as hereinafter provided; and that