

for the purchase of more than one dose of such prohibited liquors, as a medicine, at any one time; and any physician who shall, by collusion or otherwise, violate the provisions of this section, shall, on conviction, be punished in the same manner and to the same extent as the seller would have been had he been found guilty of a violation of the same.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and eighty, an election shall be held in Allegany county, and that the judges of election appointed in the usual manner to conduct the election for members of congress, shall conduct the election herein provided for, and shall receive tickets, written or printed, from the legal voters of said county, on which shall be written or printed respectively, "for license" or "against license;" and the said tickets shall be counted and returned as other ballots are counted and returned, and the result shall be certified by said judges to the clerk of the circuit court of the county aforesaid, whose duty it shall be to proclaim the result by publication in one or more newspapers in said county within thirty days after the returns shall be received by him; and the same notice shall be given by the sheriff of said county of this election as is required in the case of other elections; and said election shall in all respects be subject to and be governed by the election laws of this State, so far as they are applicable thereto.

Time of holding election.

Ballots—how prepared

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That if at said election as hereinbefore provided for a majority of the voters in said county shall be "against license," then the provisions of this act shall be and continue in force, and in such case no license shall issue in said county for the sale of any intoxicating liquors as defined and prohibited in the first section of this act, on and after the first day of May, eighteen hundred and eighty-one; nor shall any intoxicating liquors be sold in said county except as provided for in section six of this act; but if the result of said election shall be in favor of licenses, then and in that case the same shall issue as are now, or shall hereafter be allowed by law.

How effective

Approved April 10, 1880.