

said town whose owner cannot be ascertained, or being known, who shall neglect or refuse the taxes imposed by this section; and the common council may, in addition to the above, impose upon the owner or owners of any dog or bitch found running at large, as aforesaid, such fine as they may deem proper, not exceeding five dollars and costs of suit, which shall be collected as other small debts are.

SEC. 19. And be it enacted, That the common council may provide by ordinance, that horses, horned cattle, hogs, goats and sheep shall not be allowed nor permitted to run at large within the limits of the said town of Union Bridge, without a written permission therefor, signed by the mayor and attested by the clerk of said town.

Not to run a large.

SEC. 20. And be it enacted, That if any horse, horned cattle, hogs, goats or sheep shall be found running at large within the corporate limits of the said town of Union Bridge, it shall be the duty of the bailiff to impound the same, and give notice thereof by advertisement, set up at the two most public places in said town, describing the animal or animals so impounded, and if the owner or owners thereof shall not, within five days after the putting up of said notice, come forward and prove his, her or their property, and pay for each and every horse, cow or ox so impounded, the sum of fifty cents, and the expense of impounding the same, and for each and every hog, goat or sheep, the sum of twenty-five cents, and expense as aforesaid, then it shall be lawful for the bailiff to sell the animal or animals (so impounded) at public sale, and after deducting the fine and expenses as aforesaid, to pay the remainder over to the treasurer of the said town, who shall pay the same to the owner or owners of the animals so sold, when they shall satisfactorily prove ownership, and in case no person appears and proves ownership as aforesaid within twelve months from the sale aforesaid, then the said treasurer shall place the said money so received to the credit of and for the general uses and benefit of the said town of Union Bridge.

May be impounded.

SEC. 21. And be it enacted, That the common council may impose such fines, penalties and for-
