

Impose fines and penalties

feitures for breach of their laws and ordinances as they may think proper, not exceeding the sum of ten dollars for any one offence; and they may pass all laws or ordinances necessary to give effect and operation to the powers vested in them.

Appoint annually a bailiff.

SEC. 22. And be it enacted, That the common council shall annually appoint a bailiff, which appointment shall be approved by the mayor, and before said bailiff enters upon the duties of his office he shall make oath before a justice of the peace that he will faithfully and impartially perform the duties imposed upon him by this act, and the by-laws and ordinances of the said mayor and common council, and he shall execute to the mayor and common council of the town of Union Bridge, a bond, with two good and sufficient securities, to be approved by said mayor and common council, in such penalty as they shall prescribe, conditioned that he shall well and truly and faithfully perform the duties of said office, and shall pay to the treasurer of said town all sums of money that may be collected by him for the use of said corporation; it shall be the duty of the said bailiff to preserve order, and to enforce the ordinances of the said town, and to immediately arrest any and all persons who he may see violating the provisions of this charter, or of the laws and ordinances governing the said town, and to take the person or persons so arrested before the mayor or any justice of the peace residing in said town, to be dealt with according to the law governing the offence committed, and in the execution of the duties of his office he shall have all and the same powers as any constable, and be entitled to the same fees, and his bond shall be liable as constables' bonds are under the laws of this State; he may be allowed such salary as the mayor and council shall determine.

Duty of bailiff

Appoint special bailiffs

SEC. 23. And be it enacted, That the mayor, when necessary, may appoint special bailiffs for said town, not to act for more than one day; and every person resisting the authority of the regular or special bailiffs shall be liable to conviction and punishment in the same manner and to the same extent as if resisting a constable.