

Right of appeal.

seals, with a certificate of their qualification before a justice of the peace, as hereinbefore provided, to the mayor and common council of said town, which said valuation and assessment shall be ratified or rejected by said mayor and common council, as in their judgment may seem proper; and before actually opening, closing, widening, extending or altering any street, lane or alley, the said mayor and common council shall pay, or tender, or cause to be paid, or tendered, to the person, his, her or their agent, guardian or representative, the amount of damage so awarded; and if any person shall feel aggrieved by the determination of said mayor and common council in ratifying or rejecting said return, or in the amount of compensation awarded, or in any matter relating to the same, he, she or they may, within sixty days from the date of said ratification or rejection, appeal to the Circuit Court for Carroll county, and the judgment of said court shall be final; and it shall be the duty of the said mayor and common council to cause the papers connected therewith to be delivered to the clerk of said court, on petition, in writing, of any person feeling himself aggrieved, and the persons appointed to assess the damages as aforesaid shall be paid such compensation as the mayor and council shall determine.

Fines—how recovered

How applied.

SEC. 26. And be it enacted, That all fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by the laws and ordinances of the said mayor and common council shall be recovered before the mayor or any justice of the peace residing within the corporate limits of said town, upon a warrant issued against the offender and directed to the bailiff in the corporate name of the said town (except that the bailiff shall not be required to have a warrant to arrest when he sees an offence committed), and may be collected by judgment and execution in the same manner and with the same fees to the officers as provided for in cases of small debts; and the said fines, penalties and forfeitures, so received, shall be paid and delivered to the treasurer of said town, to be applied to and for the use and benefit of said town; and if the offence shall be a breach of the peace or disturbing the quiet and good order of the said town by being drunk, or by riotous, immoral or obscene conduct, or violating