

he may appeal to the president and commissioners, who may make such deduction from the valuation of his property as they may deem reasonable and just.

Right of appeal.

84. The said president and commissioners may, from time to time, under such conditions as they may by their ordinances direct, appoint such officers as they may deem necessary to carry into effect their ordinances; and at the time of electing said commissioners, and in the manner hereinbefore provided for their election, there shall be elected a town bailiff, who shall be removable by said commissioners for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, who shall be ex-officio collector of the town tax, and shall, within said town, have all the authority of a constable, and of the persons voted for at said election for town bailiff, the one receiving the highest number of votes shall be the bailiff of said town for the ensuing year and until his successor is duly elected and qualified, and if at said election there shall be a tie between any two or more persons receiving the highest number of votes, so that there shall be no election of town bailiff, the said commissioners may order a new election of town bailiff at such time and after such notice as they may deem proper; and if a vacancy should occur in the said office of town bailiff, the said commissioners shall fill said vacancy by the appointment of some person to act as town bailiff for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Appoint necessary officers.

Vacancy—how filled.

85. The said bailiff shall give bond, to be approved by the county commissioners, as other constables, for the faithful performance of his duty as constable, and also bond to the said president and commissioners for the faithful performance of his duty as town bailiff and as collector of the town tax, and the faithful performance of such duties as shall be imposed on him by the ordinances of said president and commissioners.

Give bond

86. The said bailiff may enforce the payment of town taxes in the same manner and with the like effect as collectors of State and county taxes may enforce the payment of State and county taxes.

Enforce payment