

order all or any animals coming into the State to be detained at any place or places for the purpose of inspection and examination; provided that animals coming from a neighboring State that have passed a veterinary examination in said State, and have been quarantined and discharged, shall not be subject to the provisions of this act; to prescribe regulations for the destruction of animals affected with infectious or contagious disease, or of those in direct contact with such and liable to spread the disease, and for the proper disposition of their hides and carcasses, and of all objects which might convey infection or contagion; provided that no animal shall be destroyed unless first examined by a medical or veterinary practitioner in the employ of the Governor as aforesaid; to prescribe regulations for the disinfection of all premises, buildings and railway cars, and of all objects from or by which infection or contagion may take place or be conveyed; to alter and modify, from time to time, as he may deem expedient, the terms of all such proclamations, orders and regulations, and to cancel or withdraw the same at any time.

Who to examine.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That any person who shall transgress the terms or requirements of any proclamation, order or regulation issued or prescribed by the Governor under the authority of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Not to transgress.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That any person who shall sell, or otherwise dispose of an animal which he knows or has reason to believe is affected by the disease, or has been exposed to the same, shall forfeit to the State not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

Fine for violation.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That all the necessary expenses incurred under direction or by authority of the Governor, in carrying out the provisions of this act, shall be paid by the Treasurer out of any moneys not otherwise appropriated, and upon the warrant of the Comptroller on being certified as correct by the Governor.

Expenses—how paid.
