

Prevent
spread of disease.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That in the event of its being deemed necessary by the Governor, or any agent duly appointed by him under the provisions of this act to prevent the spread of contagion or infection, to cause any animal or animals not actually diseased to be slaughtered; the value of such animal or animals shall be fairly appraised, and a record kept, and a report made thereof to the General Assembly at its session next ensuing, with a view to the reimbursement of the owners of such animals so killed; should provision therefor be made by law, it being provided that the carcasses of animals so killed and found entirely free from disease, shall, if practicable, be sold, and the proceeds of such sale shall be paid over to the respective owners of the cattle, and the amounts so received and paid over noted against the appraised value thereof.

Effective.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 10, 1880.
