

CHAPTER 451.

AN ACT to repeal sections one hundred and fifty-five and one hundred and fifty-six of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Dorchester county," as enacted by the act passed at January session, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, chapter four hundred and seventy-seven, relating to "Roads," and to re-enact the same with amendments.

Repealed and re enacted.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sections one hundred and fifty-five and one hundred and fifty-six of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Dorchester county," as enacted by the act passed at January session, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, chapter four hundred and seventy-seven, relating to "Roads," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows :

Perform road labor.

155. All able bodied male residents of said county, who have resided thirty days in said road district, above the age of twenty and under fifty years, who do not reside within the limits of an incorporated town, shall be compelled to labor in repairing the roads at least two days in every year; and every man owning horse or ox team shall be compelled to labor in repairing the roads at least three days in every year; provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent any one from employing a substitute to labor on the roads, or pay to the road supervisor seventy-five cents per day for each day he is summoned to labor; and provided, that the road supervisor shall be authorized and empowered to call out said residents for such additional days' labor as they may find necessary, to keep the public roads in order.

Summon by notice.

156. Whenever the said supervisors or their deputies shall deem it necessary to call upon said individuals for their labor upon the roads, they shall summon them, giving at least three days' notice of the time and place appointed for their labor, except
