

the end of the Tates Bank road where it reaches the Great Choptank river, thence following said road until it intersects the road leading from Cambridge to Hicksburg; thence with said last named road until it reaches Jacktown; thence following the road from Jacktown to Bucktown, until it intersects the boundary line between district number seven or Cambridge district, and district number thirteen or Bucktown district, where it crosses said road; thence with the boundary line between the two last named districts until it reaches the Transquakin bridge beyond Airey's; then following the Transquakin river to the mouth of Dumpling Point creek; thence up said creek and branch to the county road at Middletown; thence with the county road leading by Salem, to Jones' Baptist Church; thence by the county road leading by the Little Birch mill to the new county road passing over Payne's mill pond; thence with the said new county road until it intersects the road leading from Hicksburg to East New Market; thence with the last named road in the direction of Hicksburg, to the forks of the road leading to Indian creek; thence with the Indian creek road to Indian creek, and with Indian creek to the Great Choptank river; and thence down said river to the place of beginning.

Who is entitled to vote.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all persons now residing within the limits aforesaid, and who are registered voters in any of the said election districts from which is carved the new district of Linkwood, shall be entitled to register and vote in said new district, upon presenting to the registrar thereof, their certificate of dismissal from their respective election districts, as now provided by law; and all persons who reside within said limits and would have become qualified to vote in any one of the four districts from which the new district is formed, shall be entitled to register in said new district.

Appoint registrar.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That a registrar of voters for said new district shall at once be appointed by the Governor of Maryland, as now provided by law; and every justice of the peace and constable as appointed and qualified in the said second, third, eleventh and seventh election districts, who