

culating as money, and such allegation, so far as regards the description of the property, shall be sustained if the offender shall be proved to have embezzled any amount of coin or notes circulating as money, although the particular species of coin or notes circulating as money, of which such amount was composed, shall not be proved.

Approved April 10, 1880.

---

CHAPTER 459.

AN ACT to change the name of the Worcester and Somerset Railroad Company to that of the Peninsula Railroad Company, and authorize said railroad to be extended to Maryland and Virginia State line, and to connect and consolidate with any other railroad at said line.

Preamble WHEREAS the Worcester and Somerset Railroad, by a foreclosure of its first mortgage bonds, was sold to M. H. Painter, representing the bondholders of said railroad company—

Change of name. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the corporate name of the Worcester and Somerset Railroad Company be and is hereby changed to that of the Peninsula Railroad Company, reserving to said railroad company all the rights and privileges of the Worcester and Somerset Railroad company.

Authorized to extend. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Peninsula Railroad Company be and is hereby authorized to extend said railroad to any point in Worcester county on the Maryland and Virginia State line, and is hereby also further authorized and empowered, by a vote of two-thirds of the directors, and with the assent of the owners of a majority of the stock of said company, to connect and consolidate said