CHAPTER 43.

AN ACT to amend the charter the Franklin Bank of Baltimore and to provide for a change of the corporate name of the same from the President and Directors of the Franklin Bank of Baltimore to the Corn Exchange Bank of Baltimore.

Preamble

WHEREAS at a general meeting of the stockholders of the Franklin Bank of Baltimore, convened conformably to its charter, the president and directors of the same were directed to apply to the General Assembly for certain alterations of its charter whereby the par value of its shares of stock should be reduced to eight dollars per share, and the number of said shares reduced to forty thousand by the cancellation of certain of them heretofore bought and now held by the said corporation; and further, that each share of stock should be entitled to one vote at all meetings of stockholders and elections of directors. And whereas it has been thought desirable to have further alterations made in said charter whereby the name of said corporation may be changed to "The Corn Exchange Bank of Baltimore," and the president and directors may at any time hereafter, in such manner as they may prescribe, call in the outstanding shares of stock at the reduced par value of eight dollars, and give in lieu
