

May demand
a jury trial.

Shepherd of the city of Baltimore for not less than one week nor more than two months, for the first occasion; and not less than one month nor more than six months for the second or any subsequent occasion; provided, however, that in every case so brought before the Criminal Court of Baltimore city, or the circuit court for any county, the trial shall be by jury, if demanded by the party charged; and if in any case brought as aforesaid before a justice of the peace, the party charged shall demand a jury trial, the said justice shall certify said case to the Criminal Court of Baltimore city, or the circuit court for the county, as the case may be, to be proceeded with and tried by said court in the same manner as if the case had been originally brought before said court, and such court or justice may commit said person, in the absence of suitable bail, to the said House of the Good Shepherd, instead of the common jail, pending the charge.

Approved April 14, 1880.
