

CHAPTER 485.

AN ACT to add certain sections after section ninety of article thirty of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Crimes and Punishments," to be numbered as sections ninety A and ninety B of said article.

Sections added.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the following sections shall be added after section ninety of article thirty of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Crimes and Punishments," and be numbered and lettered as sections ninety A and ninety B of that article.

May be presented, &c.

90 A. Any person who may commit any indictable offence on a steamboat or railroad train within the State of Maryland may be presented, indicted, tried and convicted in any county or city from, to or through which the said boat or train may run, and on arrest be taken before, and in case ofailable offences be held to bail by any justice of the peace in any such county or city, but such presentment, indictment and trial shall be in the same county and city in which said justice of the peace shall be.

Jurisdiction of justice.

90. B Any justice of the peace in any county or city from, through or to which any steamboat or railroad train may run, shall have jurisdiction of all offences cognizable by justices of the peace, when the same shall have been committed on such boat or train.

Effective.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted. That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 10, 1880.