

rectors of the Franklin Bank of Baltimore to the Corn Exchange Bank of Baltimore.

All acts applicable.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of Acts of Assembly heretofore passed relating to the Franklin Bank of Baltimore, or applicable thereto, shall be held to relate and apply to the said corporation by its said new name, save in so far as modified or repealed by this act.

Increase of capital stock.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the said corporation, by its new name, shall have all the powers with regard to an increase of its capital stock heretofore given by Acts of Assembly to the Franklin Bank of Baltimore.

May sue and be sued.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That all rights, privileges, exemptions and immunities heretofore and then belonging to the Franklin Bank of Baltimore, shall belong to the said corporation by its said new name, and it may sue and be sued on all outstanding claims or liabilities, under its former name or the said new name, and in like manner appear to and defend the same, and no pending suit or action shall abate by reason of the said change of name, and all property of every description, now or then vested in said corporation under its former name, shall be and become the property of said corporation, under the said new name, by virtue of this act.

How effective.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That sections one, two and three of this act shall go into effect from the date of its passage, and the remaining sections, or such of them as are accepted as hereinafter provided, so soon as the stockholders of the Franklin Bank of Baltimore, at a general meeting for that purpose called, shall declare their acceptance of the same.

Approved March 15, 1880.