

Salary SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That they may allow their clerk, treasurer, bailiff and police such reasonable compensation for their services as they may think proper, and the mayor shall receive a salary of ten dollars, ($10,) and each councilman a salary of five dollars, ($5,) per annum for attending to the duties of their respective offices.

Powers SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That the mayor and councilmen shall pass such ordinances, not contrary to law, as they may deem beneficial to the town; they shall have power to remove nuisances and obstructions from the streets, lanes and alleys and from any lot adjoining thereto, and also any houses or other buildings that may become dangerous to the neighborhood on any account, and to prevent and abate all nuisances and annoyances in said town, and may impose such reasonable fines, forfeitures or imprisonments as to them may appear necessary for violation of any ordinance of the said town.

Assessment. SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That they may from time to time, cause an assessment to be made of all the property, real and personal, in the town, by three persons appointed by them, and may levy thereon a tax not exceeding in any one year twenty-five cents on every hundred dollars worth of assessable property.

Appcal. SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That any person may appeal from the valuation made by the said assessors to the mayor and councilmen, and the said mayor and councilmen shall meet at the council chamber on the first Monday in June in each year and remaining in session two days, or longer if necessary, for the purpose of hearing and determining such appeals, and shall give notice of such meetings in such manner as they may prescribe, and upon failure so to meet the said mayor and councilmen, unless prevented by sickness or unavoidable accident, shall each forfeit the sum of five dollars, and they may at each meeting examine the party appealing or any other person on oath, touching the particulars or value of the property assessed, and may reduce or increase the assessment as may seem just.

List SEC. 18. And be it enacted, That whenever they shall levy a tax the mayor and councilmen shall make out an alphabetical list of the persons chargeable therewith and shall affix the respective sums to be collected from each person and annex to the said list a warrant to the bailiff to collect the same.

Tax SEC. 19. And be it enacted, That the bailiff shall within ten days after the receipt of such warrant and list, render to each person named therein an account of his tax, and may, unless the same be paid within thirty days after the delivery of such account, collect the same by distréss and sale of the goods and chattels of the delinquent.

SEC. 20. And be it enacted, That the bailiff shall account for
