

101. To facilitate and aid in paying the expenses of the county in cash for which said bonds were issued, all county taxes levied hereafter shall be paid in money, or in the coupons of county bonds in the manner and subject to all the conditions provided by law. To be paid

102 A. The county commissioners shall not hereafter issue certificates of indebtedness nor settle, pass or allow any claim against the county, except by order of warrant to be issued for the payment thereof out of an appropriation theretofore made by them and remaining unexpended in the hands of the treasurer or other lawfully authorized financial agent of the county. No certificates.

102 B. The county commissioners shall not make any contract involving the expenditure of money, nor incur any liability for which there shall not at the time be cash in the treasury of the county sufficient to meet such expenditure or liability and appropriated to such purpose. Cash to be paid.

103. All money raised by the sale of said bonds or remaining therefrom shall be deposited in bank in the name of the board of county commissioners of Prince George's county, and shall be paid out only upon warrants as provided in section ninety of this title. Deposit.

116. He shall be the collector of all State and county taxes for Prince George's county that may be levied by the county commissioners, and shall have full power and authority to receive and collect said taxes and to enforce payment thereof, and to convey title to any personal property or real estate sold by him for the payment thereof; the sale of any real estate sold by him shall be reported to the circuit court for Prince George's county on the equity side thereof for ratification; and if it shall appear that he has complied with the requirements of law it shall be the duty of said court to ratify the same; either party to such proceedings having right of appeal as in cases in equity provided; and the general notice of sale when published as hereinafter required, shall have all the force and effect of a summons to appear in such court on the thirtieth day after the first day of such sale, to show cause why such sale should not be ratified and confirmed, and shall vest in the said court full jurisdiction in the premises in respect to the lands mentioned, and the persons named in such notice of sale to the full extent of any interest in such lands belonging to them; and if after final ratification in such proceedings the land sold shall not be redeemed within two years and as prescribed by law, the treasurer shall convey the same in fee-simple to the purchaser thereof; the treasurer shall immediately on receiving from the board of county commissioners the duplicate assessment book, or a list of taxes levied in each district of the county for each current fiscal year, proceed to receive and collect the same. Collect. To convey