

Appropriate. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the proceeds of the sale of the bonds hereby authorized to be issued shall be exclusively appropriated and applied to the payment of the sums of money already borrowed by the county commissioners of Frederick county and expended in building, repairing and replacing bridges in said county, and to the payment of such further expenses and obligations as may be or have been incurred by said commissioners in the building and repair of bridges in said county, and to the redemption, payment and satisfaction of such present outstanding bonds of the county commissioners of Frederick county as are now redeemable according to the provisions of the respective acts of the General Assembly of Maryland under which they were issued.

To pay. SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said county commissioners of Frederick county shall, in each and every year, levy upon the assessable property in Frederick county such sum of money as may be necessary to pay the interest on the outstanding bonds issued in pursuance of this act as the same shall fall due; and also, after twenty years from the date of said bonds, such further and additional sums as may be required to gradually retire and redeem said bonds until all of them shall have been redeemed; and said tax authorized by this act shall be collected as other taxes are collected in said county.

Interest. SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That said county commissioners are authorized to sell and issue such bonds in such manner and upon such notice as they in their discretion shall deem best; provided they shall issue the same bearing a lower rate of interest than four per cent. per annum; but if the said commissioners should fail to negotiate and issue said bonds at a lower rate of interest than four per cent. per annum, they are then hereby authorized and required to fix the rate of interest at four per cent. per annum and sell said bonds to the best advantage at public sale or by bid upon sealed proposals for cash, after giving such notice of time, place, manner and terms of sale as they shall determine, but none of said bonds issued under this act shall be sold for less than par.

Effective. SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 21, 1890.
