

SEC. 34 C. No person other than a resident voter of the State of Maryland shall conduct the said business or obtain the license specified in the preceding sections. Resident.

SEC. 34 D. The license specified in the three preceding sections shall be issued by the clerk of the court of common pleas in the city of Baltimore as other licenses are issued. How issued.

SEC. 34 E. The fee or price for shipping each man shall be two dollars, and no more, one dollar thereof to be paid by the captain of the boat whereon the man is to serve, and one dollar to be paid by the man to be shipped. Fee.

SEC. 34 F. Nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prohibit or prevent the captain of any oyster dredging boat from shipping his men himself by personal application to them. Not prohibited.

Approved March 27, 1890.

CHAPTER 160.

AN ACT to incorporate the Hampden and Waverly electric light and power company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John W. Clarke, Albert Gottschalk, George W. Sadtler, Frank K. Murphy, Isaac L. Nutwell, John L. Rosensteel and Charles B. Rogers, all residents of the State of Maryland, and their associates, successors and assigns, be and they are hereby created and made a body corporate, under and by the name and style of the Hampden and Waverly electric light and power company, and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and shall be capable to sue and be sued, complain and defend in any court of law or equity, to make and use a common seal and alter the same at pleasure, to receive and make deeds and contracts, to acquire by purchase, or in any other manner, take, receive, hold, use, employ, manage, mortgage, dispose of, or in any manner not inconsistent with law, deal with any property, real, personal or mixed, and situate in or out of this State, which may be necessary or proper to enable said corporation to carry on its operations or fulfill the purposes named in this act, and generally to do every other act or thing, not inconsistent with law, which may be necessary or proper to promote the objects, designs and purposes for which this corporation is formed which are hereby declared to be for the purpose of manufacturing electricity for illuminating purposes, power and for all other purposes to which electricity or magnetism may be applied, and for the sale, transportation or other disposition of the same, in Baltimore city and Baltimore county. Body corporate.