

fees therefor; but in all such cases the bailiff shall bring such complaints before a justice of the peace.

Hearing. SEC. 232. In the event of a vacancy in the office of justice of the peace residents in the town, or in case of sickness, absence or disability of the said justices, the hearing of the cases or transaction of the business assigned to said justices by this charter may be had before some other justice of the peace in and for Prince George's county; and the mayor and city council of Laurel may provide for the expenses so incurred.

Bailiff SEC. 233. The bailiff shall perform such services as said mayor and city council shall direct; he shall arrest and carry before a justice of the peace for Prince George's county as provided in the preceding section, to be dealt with as hereinbefore provided, any person found breaking the peace or disturbing the quiet and order of said town, or violating any of the ordinances made for securing the safety of the property or the lives of the inhabitants of the town.

License
I. 26. SEC. 234. The mayor and city council shall have power to impose a license upon all circuses, menageries, theatrical exhibitions and other shows and exhibitions for gain exhibiting within the limits of the town, not exceeding twenty dollars for each show or exhibition; provided, that this section shall not apply to entertainments given for religious benefit or charitable purposes, nor to entertainments given by the residents of the town not for gain.

Style. SEC. 236. The style of all ordinances shall be, "Be it enacted and ordained by the mayor and city council of Laurel;" all suits at law for violation of any rules, ordinances, regulations and by-laws shall be instituted in the name of the mayor and city council of Laurel against offending parties, and all fines recovered in such suits at law for the breach of any rule, ordinance, regulation or by-law of the corporation, before any justice of Prince George's county shall be collected by said justice and paid over to the treasurer of said corporation within one month after the collection of the same; and the said justice shall render an account to the mayor and city council every month, or oftener if required, of the amount so received by him.

Supervisor SEC. 237. There shall be elected annually by the voters in said town and in the same manner, and possessing the same qualifications as the mayor, one person as supervisor, whose duty it shall be to superintend the improvements of the town, and who shall perform such other duties as the mayor and city council may prescribe, and he shall be allowed such compensation as shall be fixed by them, and in case of a vacancy in the said office, a new election shall be ordered and held as in case of vacancies in the office of mayor.