

mayor and city council of Cumberland and the said Baltimore and Ohio railroad company.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That before any of said bonds of the said mayor and city council of Cumberland are issued, or before the said bonds of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company hereinbefore referred to shall be endorsed or guaranteed, or any liability for principal or interest is by said city incurred as aforesaid, such issue or endorsement shall be authorized by an ordinance of the mayor and city council of Cumberland which shall be submitted to the legal voters of said city and approved by a majority of the legal votes cast upon said question at the election to which said question shall be submitted; and said election shall be held at such time and place as may be fixed by said ordinance, and public notice of the submission of said question at said election shall be given at least twenty days before the holding of the same, by handbills or otherwise, and in the event that it is decided at said election that said bonds shall either be issued or that the bonds of said railroad company shall be guaranteed, the mayor and city council of Cumberland are hereby authorized and empowered to levy a tax sufficient to pay the interest on the same, and to provide for the payment of the said bonds at the maturity thereof. Submit to vote.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved March 31, 1890.

CHAPTER 230.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments section six hundred and fourteen, of article four, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "City of Baltimore," sub-title "Justices of the Peace and Constables."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section six hundred and fourteen, of article four, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "City of Baltimore," sub-title "Justices of the Peace and Constables," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows: To repeal

SEC. 641. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be the duty of the governor after the appointment of the justices of the peace provided for by section six hundred and seven, to select from the justices of the peace so appointed a justice of the peace to sit at each station-house in the city of Baltimore, and in addition one justice of the peace to act at such times and places as hereinafter provided for; each justice so selected shall