

CHAPTER 258.

AN ACT to amend article ten, of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Dorchester county," sub-title "Liquor and Intoxicating Drinks," by adding thereto an additional section to be known as "sub-section two hundred and thirteen A," giving to justices of the peace of Dorchester county, jurisdiction for the trial of all offenders for the violation of sections two hundred and seven, two hundred and eight, two hundred and nine, two hundred and ten, two hundred and eleven and two hundred and thirteen.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That article ten, of the Code of Public Local Laws of this State, title "Dorchester county," sub-title "Liquor and Intoxicating Drinks," be and the same is hereby amended by adding thereto the following additional sub-section to be designated as "sub-section two hundred and thirteen A." To amend.

213 A. The several justices of the peace of Dorchester county shall have in addition to the jurisdiction which they now possess under the laws of this State, jurisdiction in all cases for violation of the provisions of sections two hundred and seven, two hundred and eight, two hundred and nine, two hundred and ten, two hundred and eleven and two hundred and thirteen, of article ten, of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Dorchester county," sub-title "Liquor and Intoxicating Drinks," or either of them, and their power and authority to entertain and try such cases, and their course and manner of proceeding shall be the same as is prescribed for justices of the peace in section two hundred and twelve of the said sub-title; provided, if any violation of the provisions of the said just mentioned six sections, or either of them hath been committed, or any prosecution for violation of the same be pending before or at the time when this sub-section goes into effect, the offender or offenders may be proceeded against and punished in the same manner as if this sub-section had not been adopted. Violations
To punish.

Approved April 3, 1890.