

ing of the levy; provided, said bonds shall not be sold for less than par, and nothing in this section shall be construed as conflicting with section two hundred and ten, of aforesaid article twenty-four, the tax provided for in this section being intended as a special tax independent of the tax for general purposes.

SEC. 218. And be it enacted, That said commissioners shall immediately on the passage of this act at their first meeting thereafter, and all newly elected boards of commissioners at their first meeting after qualifying, elect a treasurer, whose term of office shall be co-existent with the term of the board of commissioners appointing him, who before entering upon the duties of his office shall give bond to the commissioners with two or more good securities in double the amount of money that will probably be in his hands at any one time, with condition that he shall well and faithfully execute the office of the treasurer of the board of commissioners of Pocomoke city and perform the duties required of him by law and the town ordinances, and make to the board at the end of each quarter an itemized statement of all moneys paid to him and paid out by him; that he shall be custodian of the money raised on the above mentioned bonds, as well as all moneys collected by the collector of town taxes, it being made the duty of the said collector to pay to the said treasurer all moneys collected by him from fines and forfeitures, dog-tax, tax on shows and all other taxes at the end of each and every month and take his receipt for the same; that the said treasurer shall receive the same and pay it out only upon the written order of the board of town commissioners. Treasurer.

SEC. 219. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have power to establish grades upon the streets, gutters and side-walks of said town, the width thereof, and prescribe the material of which they shall be built, to cause the side-walks along said public streets to be graded, paved, repaired or improved and curbs to be set, at the cost and expense of the owners of the abutting property, which cost and expense if not paid by the owners of said property when said work is finished, shall be a lien on the abutting property and shall be recoverable and collected as the town taxes of said Pocomoke city are now by law collectible, and shall be due and collectible when the work is finished, or the said commissioners may compel by fines or otherwise, the owners or proprietors of such property to grade, pave or repave the side-walks, set curbs in front thereof agreeable to ordinances that may be hereafter passed. Grades

SEC. 220. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved April 3, 1890.