

That a new precinct be and is hereby created in Cambridge, or seventh election district of Dorchester county, to be known as the "Third, or Dailsville Precinct," and that it shall consist of all that part of said seventh election district lying west of a line commencing at the mouth of Jenkins' creek; thence running with the centre of said creek and the branch that divides the Chamberlaine farm to the county road; thence in about a southern direction to a point in the centre of the Bayly road, opposite the residence of Thos. Woolford, colored; thence with the Bayly road and Church creek road, to limit of Church creek, or number nine election district of said county, the precinct hereby created being a part of the present western precinct, and the voting place for said third, or Dailsville precinct, shall be at Dailsville; the county commissioners of Dorchester county are hereby directed to make all necessary provisions for voting in said precinct as they are now required by law for other polling places in said county.

New precinct.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved April 3, 1890.

---

CHAPTER 277.

AN ACT to repeal section one hundred and seventy-eight, article twelve, of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Garrett county," sub-title "Oakland," and to re-enact the same with amendments, authorizing the mayor and council of Oakland to levy needful taxes on the assessable property within the town liable to taxation, and to provide for collecting the same.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section one hundred and seventy-eight, article twelve, of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Garrett county," sub-title "Oakland," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

Repeal

178. The mayor and council shall have power to pass all such ordinances not contrary to the constitution and laws of this State, as may be necessary to give effect to the powers conferred by this charter, and which they may deem necessary for the good government of the town, for the preservation of peace and good order, and securing persons and property from violence, danger and destruction; for the removal of nuisances of every character, and all obstructions from the streets, lanes and alleys and from any lot adjoining thereto within the limits of the town, they may remove or cause to be removed any houses or other buildings that

Powers.