

CHAPTER 40.

AN ACT to repeal section forty-two, of article thirteen, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Harford county," sub-title "Birds and Game," and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section forty-two, of article thirteen, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Harford county," sub-title "Birds and Game," so far as the same relates to Harford county be repealed, and as to said county re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows: Repeal.

42. It shall not be lawful to shoot, trap, maim or kill, or in any manner injure, destroy or expose for sale, any partridge or rabbit in Harford county, between the first day of January and the Wednesday next succeeding the Tuesday after the first Monday in November; nor any woodcock between the first day of January and the tenth day of June; nor any rail birds, reed birds or pheasants, between the first day of February and the first day of September in each year; and the possession of any of the birds or game mentioned in this section during the prohibited periods, shall be deemed prima facie evidence against such person of a violation of this section, except when it may appear that such birds or game are for breeding purposes. Unlawful.

Approved February 20, 1890.

 CHAPTER 41.

AN ACT to authorize the county commissioners of Montgomery county to borrow money on the credit of the county, for the purpose of erecting a new fire-proof court house in the town of Rockville, in said county; to issue bonds for the payment of the same, and to levy taxes on the assessable property of said county to redeem said bonds and to pay the interest thereon, and to provide for the erection and furnishing of said court house.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new fire-proof court house shall be built with all necessary offices in the town of Rockville, in Montgomery county, on the site of the present court house, and that said new court house and offices when constructed shall be furnished with all the necessary cases and furniture for the accommodation of the courts to be held in said building for said county, members of the bar and public officers, and with such other things as their convenience may require. To build.
