

adjourned or called meeting, and all officers who are elected annually shall remain in office until their successors are duly elected.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the officers of the society to be elected annually shall be a president, a vice-president, a recording secretary, a corresponding secretary, a treasurer, and not less than eight other managers, all of whom shall be elected from the female members who shall together be styled the managers. Officers

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the superintendence and regulation and management of all the buildings in which the operations of the society shall be carried on, and the care and government of all inmates therein shall be vested in the managers, and such agents and other officers as they may from time to time appoint, and under by-laws, rules and regulations as said managers shall from time to time adopt. Managers-

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the present eleven trustees and their successors in office, shall continue in office until death, resignation, removal out of the State, or other vacancy, and the succession shall be maintained, so that there shall always be eleven trustees by the appointment by the managers of other gentlemen from time to time to fill vacancies as they occur, and five trustees shall be a quorum for the transaction of business. Trustees.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the said trustees shall hold all the principal sums of money and other property belonging to said corporation and invest, sell and re-invest the same from time to time at their discretion; and shall collect and pay over all the income from time to time to the treasurer of the managers, and the said trustees shall make out annually, in the month of January, a statement of all the principal funds of the corporation, and of all the income collected therefrom and its disposition; and it shall be the duty of the treasurer of the managers annually, in the month of January, to make out a statement of all money received by the managers from all sources and the disposition which has been made of it; the annual statement of the trustees and of the treasurer of the managers shall be printed in an annual report of the society so that all interested in its welfare may have accurate information of its condition; and the said managers shall have the right to order to be sold and to be paid over to the treasurer or to other persons as they may direct any part of the principal funds of the corporation for the purpose of building, repairing or improving, furnishing or sustaining in any way their buildings or for any other purpose consistent with the charitable purposes of the corporation, from time to time as the managers from time to time at their discretion may determine; and all suits shall be controlled by said trustees, and all gifts, legacies and devises shall be paid to said trustees for the use of said society and subject to the orders of the managers as aforesaid, and the trustees shall have the custody of the seal of the corporation; and Statement
Controlled