

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That James A. Boyd, Dr. Charles J. Maddox, Samuel S. Hayes, Allan Farquhar and John H. Bogley, be and they are hereby appointed a building committee for the purpose of having said new court house erected, and shall each receive the sum of fifty dollars to defray their expenses in discharging the duties required of them by this act; three of them shall form a quorum for the transaction of all business, and the concurrence of three of them shall be necessary in the decision of all questions which may arise in the discharge of their duties; all vacancies occurring in said building committee, whether from death, resignation, refusal to act or otherwise, shall be filled by the county commissioners of said county.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said building committee shall as speedily as possible procure and adopt a plan and specifications for said building, and they shall invite sealed proposals by publication for a reasonable time for building the court house and offices and furnishing the same; and the party or parties proposing to build the court house and supply the furniture for the same shall present or send their proposals in sealed envelopes to the clerk of the county commissioners of said county, to be by him delivered to said building committee on the day named by them for publicly opening said proposals; said proposals shall set forth the amount of money for which he or they propose to do the work or supply the furniture; and good and sufficient security shall be taken by the said building committee for the use of said county commissioners, and in their name from the party or parties contracting to erect said building and offices, and from the party or parties contracting to furnish the same as a security for the faithful performance of such contract or contracts as may be entered into; and the contract or contracts for building the said court house and offices and furnishing the same shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder; and the said building committee are hereby directed to include all the material in the present court house, and also all the material in the building now occupied by the county school commissioners of said county in advertising for proposals for building said new court house and in awarding the contract for building the same; provided, however, that the building occupied by the county school commissioners as aforesaid shall not be torn down and the material thereof removed until the completion of said new court house, but shall be retained for the use of such officers of the county as can be accommodated therein during the erection of the new building.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That said court house shall be in all respects completed and furnished on or before the first day of October, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-one, and within thirty days thereafter the said building committee shall make a full, clear and explicit report with vouchers for all their expendi-
