

above provided; tax-payers shall have the privilege of hauling stones upon the roads to the extent of two-thirds of their road tax; provided, they deliver the same in such a way and at such prices as shall be agreed upon by the tax-payer and road commissioner of his sub-district, prices for hard material on the road at designated places shall be fixed by the road commissioners of the several districts subject to the approval by the county commissioners; one-third of the road tax expended in any district shall be used in the purchase of stone or other suitable hard material for macadamizing or making hard roads.

SEC. 194. The road commissioners herein provided for shall take charge of all the roads and bridges in their respective districts, and shall see that no obstruction, hindrance or injury is permitted upon any road or bridge under their supervision; and when any road or bridge shall form the boundary between districts, the county commissioners shall assign to each district its portion of said road or bridge; any person placing obstructions of any kind whatsoever on the public roads or in the side ditches thereof, shall be liable to a fine of five dollars and costs for each and every such offense, which shall be imposed by any justice of the peace of the district within which said offense shall be committed, upon the complaint of the road commissioner having charge of said road; provided, said person having been notified to remove said obstruction by the road commissioner, shall fail to do so within two days after notification; and provided further, that the person so placing said obstructions on the public roads or in the side ditches shall be liable to a fine of five dollars for each day that he permits said obstruction to remain, the said fine to be in addition to the original fine of five dollars, after the expiration of said two days, to be imposed by said justice and enforced in like manner as said original fine, said fine to be paid by the justice to the county commissioners of Baltimore county, and placed by them to the credit of the district in which it has been imposed, said fine to be enforceable as other fines imposed by justices of the peace.

Duties.

Fines.

SEC. 196. That the county commissioners shall annually levy upon the assessable property of Baltimore county, at the time of making the county levy, a sum of money not less than ten nor more than fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars, for the use of public roads and bridges in Baltimore county, which shall be collected as other county taxes are collected; that the said county commissioners at the time of the annual tax levy for the year eighteen hundred and ninety, and each succeeding year, are hereby authorized, directed and required to make a special annual levy of ten cents on each one hundred dollars of the whole assessable property of each of the election districts of Baltimore county, to be collected as other county taxes in said county are collected,

Levy.