

or petitioners is or are not fit persons to whom such license should be granted; and if sufficient cause shall at any time be shown, or proof be made to the said board, that the party licensed was guilty of any fraud in procuring such license, or has violated any law of the State relating to the sales of intoxicating liquor, the said board shall, after giving notice to the person so licensed, revoke said license; and the criminal court of the city may in like manner revoke said license if the party should be convicted before it of any such violation.

Remonstrances.

653 K. No license shall be issued to any person or persons until he, she or they shall have paid the license fees provided for in this act.

To pay
fee.

653 L. If, after the notice and hearing provided for in this act, the said board should decide to grant the license prayed for, they shall notify the applicant of such decision in writing, and the applicant shall thereupon pay to the clerk of the court of common pleas, the sum of money specified below, to wit: For a hotel or restaurant, or other place in which distilled liquors, or any admixture of distilled liquors containing more than fifteen per cent. of alcohol, or fermented liquors containing less than fifteen per cent. of alcohol, are sold by retail the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, and the clerk of the court of common pleas shall thereupon issue to applicants the license authorized to be issued by said board; provided, that any bona fide retail grocer who shall make application for a license to sell wines or other liquors in unbroken packages, or in quantities not less than a pint, and in no case to be drunk on the premises, may be licensed by said board to do so on complying with the condition of this act, and paying therefor the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars a year: and, provided, that distillers, brewers, wholesale dealers and jobbers, shall not be allowed or permitted to sell distilled or fermented liquors in less quantities than unbroken package or less than packages of one gallon each, and that they shall pay a license fee of two hundred and fifty dollars per annum for the privilege of selling distilled and fermented liquors as aforesaid; but in no case shall a license to sell intoxicating liquors by the drink be granted to any person who shall obtain a license to sell goods, wares or merchandise other than intoxicating liquors, upon the same premises where such intoxicating liquors are licensed to be sold; provided, further, that no retail license shall be issued to any distiller or brewer.

Amount
of fees.

653 M. The whole of the money received by the clerk of the court of common pleas for the license aforesaid, shall be paid over quarterly by said clerk of the court of common pleas to the State as now provided by law, and when so paid over the comptroller of the treasury shall draw his warrant upon the treasurer

To pay
over.