

CHAPTER 375.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments section one hundred and fifty-five, of article two, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Anne Arundel county," sub-title "Fish, Crabs and Terrapins," and to add additional sections to said article, to be designated as "Sections one hundred and fifty-five A and one hundred and fifty-five B."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section one hundred and fifty-five, of article two, of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Anne Arundel county," sub-title "Fish, Crabs and Terrapins," be and the same hereby is repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows : Repeal.

SEC. 155. It shall not be lawful for any person in the fish spawning season, that is to say, between the first day of March and the first day of May in any year, to put, place, erect, construct or use in the waters of the Severn river, at any point above Bulling's cove on the one side, and Poplar spring on the other side of said river; or in the waters of South river above a straight line drawn from Hodges' wharf on the one side, to Old woman's point on the other side of South river, or in the waters of Broad creek of South river, north of a straight line drawn from McNew's point on the one side, to the lower point of Scott's cove on the other side of said creek, or in any of the creeks, coves or tributaries of either Severn river or South river, above points where any such creek, cove or tributary is in its channel of a less depth than three feet, or anywhere in Severn run of Severn river, any set-net, fish-basket, fish-pot, fish-trap, set-line, weir, pound-net, fyke, seine or drag-net, or any other instrument or contrivance whatsoever, now known or used in the catching or destroying of fish, or which may hereafter be invented for that purpose, or to take, catch, capture or destroy any fish from, by or with the same or any of the same, except with hook and line. Not to fish

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the two following sections be and the same are hereby added to article two, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Anne Arundel county," sub-title "Fish, Crabs and Terrapins," to come in after section one hundred and fifty-five, of said article, and to be designated as "Sections one hundred and fifty-five A and one hundred and fifty-five B, respectively." To amend

SEC. 155 A. It shall not be lawful for any person to empty any seine or net upon the beach or shore within the limits of said county at any time, so as to leave the small and unmarketable fish to perish, but they shall empty their seines or nets in water not less than twelve inches in depth, so as to permit the