

and not collected by him, with notice that in case they are not paid before the first Monday of March then next ensuing, he will on that day proceed to offer for sale each parcel of land in respect to which such default in payment of taxes shall have been made; and

WHEREAS, section one hundred and sixteen B of said article, further provided that said treasurer shall on the first Monday of March next thereafter proceed to sell accordingly; and Preamble

WHEREAS, it has been represented that because of the loose and evil modes prevailing in former years, in respect to the collection of taxes and financial matters of the county, and the consequent impoverishment of the people, it may work hardship to them to enforce the payment of the taxes of the present year's levy at so early a date; now, therefore, to enable the people of said county more easily to escape from the pernicious modes of a loose credit system and establish themselves on a cash basis. Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in respect to the enforcement of payment of taxes levied in March for the year eighteen hundred and ninety in the county of Prince George's, the publication of list of taxes required by said section one hundred and sixteen B, to be made on the second Monday of January, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, shall be made on the second Monday of March, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, and the sale so advertised to be made shall be begun, continued and made on the first Monday of May, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, and thereafter all proceedings shall be as provided in said sections and other sections of the act, chapter one hundred and thirty-seven of the laws of the general assembly of the session of eighteen hundred and ninety. To advertise.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved April 3, 1890.

CHAPTER 383.

AN ACT to amend article seventeen, of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, entitled "Clerks of Courts," by adding thereto an additional section to be designated "Section two A."
