

SEC. 153. And be it enacted, That the town of Millington, Kent county, Maryland, including the place known as "Sandtown," Queen Anne's county and the inhabitants thereof, are a body politic by the name and style of "The commissioners of Millington," Kent county, Maryland, and as such may sue and be sued, and may have and use a common seal, and may alter the same at pleasure. Corporation.

SEC. 154. And be it enacted, That there shall be three commissioners for Millington, Kent county, Maryland, all of whom shall be tax-payers upon real or personal property who shall be elected for one year and who shall serve without compensation. Commissioners

SEC. 155. And be it enacted, The male citizens living within the corporate limits of the town of Millington, in Kent and Queen Anne's counties, Maryland, who have been residents of said town for six months next preceding any election held under and by authority of this act of incorporation, and who also shall be over twenty-one years old shall elect by ballot, on the second Saturday in March, in each year, at some suitable place selected by the said commissioners in the said town between the hours of two and five p. m., three suitable persons residents of said town as commissioners of said town to serve for one year, commissioners shall give at least ten days' notice of said election, and any justice of the peace may preside thereat, and if no justice be present at the time of holding said election the commissioners may hold the same; if anything shall prevent said election from being held on the day appointed, the commissioners shall appoint another day for holding the same, and shall give notice thereof at least five days previous thereto, and in case of death or resignation, the commissioners shall fill all vacancies in their own body which may happen within the year. To elect.

SEC. 156. And be it enacted, That each commissioner before he proceeds to act as such, shall make oath before a justice of the peace for Kent county, that he will diligently and faithfully, to the best of his skill and judgment, perform the duties of commissioner of said town without favor, partialty or prejudice and the certificate of said qualifications shall be returned by the said justice to the said commissioners and filed and recorded among the proceedings. Oath.

SEC. 157. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall meet annually on the first Monday in April and on the first Monday in every month thereafter, and as much oftener as they think proper; not less than a majority shall constitute a board for the transaction of any business, excepting adjournment; they may appoint a clerk to keep the minutes of the proceedings, in a well bound book to be provided by them for that purpose, and they may also appoint a bailiff who may be allowed to hold the office of collector of taxes for said town, giving bond therefor for the Proceedings.