

him in said town, in addition to the penalty of having the same shot or otherwise destroyed.

SEC. 160. And be it enacted, That the commissioners may pass all laws and ordinances necessary to give effect and operation to the powers vested in them, and impose such fines, penalties and forfeitures for breach of their laws and ordinances as they may think proper not exceeding five dollars for any one offense; and said commissioners shall forthwith define and locate the limits of said town, and shall have the same filed and recorded in the clerk's office for Kent county for reference and safe keeping; and the said commissioners may pass all laws and ordinances necessary for grading, regulating, paving and repairing the foot-ways in the streets, lanes and alleys in said town, and impose a tax on any lot fronting on any street, lane or alley, for the purpose of grading, regulating, paving and repairing the foot-ways in front thereof, or compel by fine or otherwise the owners of any lot to pave or repair the foot-ways in front thereof agreeably to the ordinance to be passed by them, and shall have power to open and establish new streets, lanes and alleys, and straighten and widen old streets, lanes and alleys, and to provide for the payment of damages and expenses incurred for opening and widening or straightening the streets, lanes and alleys as aforesaid, by laying and assessing the same generally upon the whole of the assessable property of the town or upon the property of person or persons to be benefitted thereby.

Fines.

Streets.

SEC. 161. And be it enacted, That the justices of the peace resident in said town are hereby declared to be the conservators of the peace of said town, and it shall be their duty to order the arrest of the person or persons found breaking the peace or disturbing the quiet or order of said town, or violating any of the ordinances made by the commissioners for securing the safety, health, property or lives of the inhabitants of said town, and shall have power to require any person so offending to give security to keep the peace, or in default thereof, may commit said person to the county jail for not more than ten days, and in addition thereto may for the commission of said offense impose a fine on such person of not more than five dollars; and such person in default of payment thereof may be committed to the county jail for a period of not more than ten days; all fines, penalties and forfeitures under the sub-title of this article and not otherwise provided for shall be recoverable before a justice of the peace of said county, resident in said town, in the name of the commissioners and applied to the benefit of said town, and in all such proceedings the bailiff shall have the same power to proceed in the same manner and have the same fees as constables, and for police duty shall be entitled to the same fees as constable, and all process shall be returnable before some justice of the peace resident in the same town.

Conservators of the peace.