

214. The sheriff of Anne Arundel county shall be allowed for keeping and boarding prisoners committed to the jail of said county, such sum as the county commissioners shall determine, not to exceed the sum of twenty-five cents a day for each such prisoner; and the county commissioners shall have quarterly accountings with the sheriff for the same, upon presentation of his accounts for the same with proper vouchers, and shall levy for the same annually, and said accounts shall state the exact number of days and fractions of days each such prisoner was confined within said jail, and shall be verified by the affidavit of said sheriff; he shall also be entitled to receive from the county commissioners to be levied annually by them, for carrying and conveying persons under sentence to the State penitentiary or the house of correction, or to or from jails of any of the counties of the State, (except Anne Arundel county,) and the jail or station-houses of the city of Baltimore, or to or from any other place of confinement under the sentence or final order of any authorized judicial authority, the sum of ten dollars for one person so carried or conveyed, and for each additional person so carried or conveyed at the same time five dollars and no more, unless the county commissioners shall be satisfied that extraordinary care and caution had to be exercised, accompanied with unusual danger, trouble or expense, and said compensation so specified, shall be held to include all costs and expenses incident to the carrying and conveying of such person or persons; provided, that so far as possible the said sheriff shall convey, and shall by the commissioners be held and required to convey at one and the same time to each such institution all persons sentenced to be confined in each such respective institution at any one term of court; no other fees, turnkey charges, perquisites or allowances whatsoever shall be granted, allowed or levied for said sheriff except such as are specified by the Code of Public General Laws relating to sheriffs, whether the same have been heretofore allowed by usage or not.

Sheriff's fees

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall not be held to apply to the present incumbent of the office of sheriff of said county.

Exception

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 3, 1890.