

Preamble of said act did provide to have said monument erected and have made a report of their proceedings and work to the governor, which report contains valuable historical information which it is desirable to perpetuate in print; and

Preamble. WHEREAS, the cavalry detachment of the Purnell legion, a Maryland organization, also participated in said battle, but by inadvertence was omitted from the provisions of said act, and it being eminently proper that its position on said battlefield should also be suitable marked; therefore, ment SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners heretofore appointed under the provisions of said act of eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, chapter one hundred and eighteen, be and they are hereby authorized and directed to proceed to have erected upon the Gettysburg battlefield, a suitable memorial tablet or monument to mark the position occupied by the said cavalry detachment of the Purnell legion in the said battle, and that they proceed in the same manner and with the same authority prescribed in the said act of eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, chapter one hundred and eighteen to which this is a supplement.

Report SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners when they shall have completed their labors under this supplementary act, shall make a full report thereof to the governor, and appropriately incorporate the same with the report heretofore submitted, and that said commissioners be and they are hereby authorized to expend not more than five hundred dollars of the amount hereinafter appropriated, in having said report printed, one hundred copies of which shall be delivered to the State librarian for disposition as the governor may direct, and the balance shall be distributed by said commissioners.

Appropriation. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the sum of sixteen hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to pay the cost of said additional monument, and the expenses necessarily incurred in the selection of the site therefor and the erection thereof, and the printing of said report, and when said tablet or monument shall be completed and properly erected and said report shall be printed and ready for delivery, the said commissioners, or majority of them, shall certify the same to the comptroller of the treasury who shall upon proper vouchers draw his warrant upon the treasurer of the State for the amount or amounts required to pay for said monument and expenses and said printing not exceeding in all the said sum of sixteen hundred dollars.

Effective. SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.
