

Laws of Talbot county, be and the same is hereby repealed so far as said section relates to the catching of fish with pound-nets, fyke-nets and weirs in the waters of Miles river, from Deep Water point to the source of said river or in any of its tributaries, or in the waters of Tred Avon river, from the mouth of Plain Dealing creek to the source of said last mentioned river or in any of its tributaries, and in the water of Wye river; and from and after the passage of this act, it shall be unlawful to catch fish in any of the waters above named, between the points described with pound-nets, fyke-nets or weirs; provided, that nothing in this act shall be construed to effect in any wise the waters of Queen Anne's county.

Repeal

Unlawful.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall, upon conviction before any justice of the peace of the county in whose waters the offense may be committed, shall be fined the sum of one hundred dollars, and all the nets and weirs used in such violation shall be condemned and sold by the officer making the arrest, the proceeds of sale, together with the fines, shall be paid over to the county commissioners of the county where the fine is imposed, and shall be placed by them after paying all costs and expenses incurred in the enforcement of this act to the credit of said county.

Penalty.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 8, 1890.

CHAPTER 423.

AN ACT to correct an erroneous sub-division of land in Hyattsville, Prince George's county, Maryland.

WHEREAS, Louis D. Wine and George J. Johnson being the owners of a tract of land in Hyattsville, have heretofore subdivided the same into certain streets and alleys, and two unmarked lots, one bounded by Circle avenue on the westerly side and Luttrell avenue on the east, the other bounded by Terrace and Washington avenue and the county road, as will more fully appear by reference to plat recorded in liber J. W. B., 1, folio 286, of the land records of Prince George's county, which it is believed by the commissioners of Hyattsville were reserved for public purposes; and Preamble.

WHEREAS, by a subsequent sub-division, said Wine and Johnson included said unmarked pieces of land together with two streets marked as "Circle avenue and Terrace avenue" in lots and conveyed the same to Charles E. Beach; and

Preamble

WHEREAS, said Charles E. Beach is desirous of having his