CHAPTER 62.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments section ten, of article fifty-one, of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Juries."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section ten, of article fifty-one, of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Juries," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, so as to read as follows, viz: Repeal.

10. That of the forty-eight jurors drawn and summoned, the court at the beginning of the term for which they were drawn and summoned, shall select and appoint one who shall be the foreman of the grand jury, and shall direct the clerk of said court to legibly write upon ballots the names of the remaining forty-seven jurors, and after carefully folding said ballots separately, to place them in a box with a sliding top; and said clerk shall draw said ballots therefrom one at a time without looking into said box, and the first twenty-two names drawn, with the foreman previously appointed shall constitute the grand jury, and the remaining twenty-five names shall constitute the petit jury for said term of said court; whenever a vacancy shall occur in the position of foreman of the grand jury, either temporary or permanent by death, sickness, absence or any other cause, the court shall have power to appoint some other member of the grand jury foreman as often as the necessity for such appointment shall occur; if for any reason any person drawn as a grand juror shall fail to attend or be disqualified or excused for cause, the court in its discretion may fill such vacancy by drawing the necessary number of additional names in the manner provided by section eight of this article; this section shall not apply to Prince George's county Foreman.
