

Tax list. SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That whenever the council shall levy a tax they shall cause to be made out an alphabetical list of all the persons charged therewith, and shall cause to be affixed thereto the respective sums to be collected from each person, and a warrant to the bailiff to collect the same.

To publish SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That the bailiff shall within thirty days after the receipt of such list and warrant, render to each person named therein an account of the tax; and if he cannot render to any person such account by reason of his non-residence, or otherwise, he shall publish such account in some newspaper published in the county in which the property is situated, at the expense of the tax-payers, and post the same in some conspicuous place, and may, unless the same be paid within thirty days after the delivery or publication of such account, collect the same with all costs by distress or execution and sale of the real and personal property of such delinquent at public auction, all of which proceedings shall be similar to the general law now in force in this State for the collection of State and county taxes by the tax collectors.

Deed. SEC. 18. And be it enacted, That the mayor shall execute and deliver to the purchaser, when said sale is ratified by the circuit court, a deed of the property so sold, and the said deed shall convey to the purchaser the said property and shall be presumptive evidence that all the requirements of law have been complied with in making such assessment, levy, sale and deed; and unless the owner or owners shall within two years redeem such property by paying to the purchaser the whole amount of money paid by him for said property with fifteen per cent. interest thereon per annum, said title shall become absolute and indefeasible.

Bailiff. SEC. 19. And be it enacted, That the bailiff shall make all collections required of him and pay the same to the clerk within six months from the time the tax list is placed in his hands, and which said clerk shall hold, together with all other moneys received by him, subject to the order of the council.

Bailiff. SEC. 20. And be it enacted, That the bailiff shall attend the meetings of the council and perform such duties as it shall direct; he shall preserve the peace, prevent disorderly or irregular meetings of persons, and he shall enforce all ordinances that may be enacted by the council.

Mayor. SEC. 21. And be it enacted, That the mayor shall have all the powers of a justice of the peace in criminal cases where the mayor and council is a party, and shall receive the same fees as a justice of the peace is allowed for similar services, and an appeal from his judgment, when the amount exceeds five dollars, may be taken to the circuit court of the county in which the person making the appeal resides, which court shall hear and determine the matter as upon appeal from a justice of the peace; provided, however,
